preservation, and everything in as good con-

Mrs. MARY ARBUT, Lawton, Mich.

Hamocks!
Geo. W. Koons has a nice new lot of them.

Local Department.

W. N. Johnson has returned to Dakota.
David Ward Wood orates at Decatur on the Fourth.

Miss Mary LaMont is visiting friends in Tiffin, Ohio.

It was just fun to see A. H. Herron shovel dirt at Lawrence.

Ed. Darling made his folks a flying visit on Saturday and Sunday last.

The wool market is brisk. Van Anken has bought about 25,000 lbs.

Decatur will celebrate the glorious Fourth.
Likewise South Haven and Hartford.

Miss Ella F. Hendrick has closed her school and gone for a visit to Illinois.

Prof. F. D. Jacobs has accepted the leadership of the choir at the Disciple church.

Dr. Andrews arrived home on Monday last.
He is still very weak but improving slowly.

Charley Hutchins has gone to Goshen, Ind., to attend Straub's Musical Institute at that place.

Prater is building an addition on the rear end of his building adjoining the Non-Thresher office.

Miss Minnie Hodges returned home from Valparaiso on Tuesday, where she has been attending school.

The Alumni of the High School picnicked at Lake Park on Friday last. They report an excellent time.

Miss Lettie Darling returned home on Friday last from a four weeks visit with friends in South Haven.

H. McCabe was arrested at Benton Harbor on the 26th, for stealing wood. Now don't anybody think it was Hank. 'Twant him.

The store under the Grange Hall is being fitted up in good shape. Gilman will do the honors there we are told. He knows how.

Wm. Rickerson, of Bangor, is in town selling the White Sewing Machine. His headquarters are at Mrs. P. B. Emery's dress making rooms.

Judging by the last week's Day Spring, Hartford grapes are not as sour as they were.
Strange what difference there can be. 'Twixt tweedledum and tweedledee.

A large number of the friends of the graduating class assembled at the residence of Judge Richards on Thursday evening last.
A very pleasant time was had.

It would have been worth a quarter to see Frank's long legs seeking safety during that thunder storm Sunday evening. It is worth nearly that just to hear Ed. tell it.

We made a mistake about riding to Bangor without change of cars. The narrow gauge cars cannot run on the C. & W. M. track and we shall have to change at Hartford.

Our Probate Judge goes to Massachusetts next week to spend a month with friends and relatives. While he is absent Judge Mills will perform the duties of his office.

The school says we "gobbled" its item mistake and all. We published it so that people might see it. Please don't make any more such mistakes Ed., they are very annoying.

Henry Filley's little girl has been very sick with scarlet fever for the last two weeks.
We are pleased to hear that she is getting better. She is at her grandfather's in Glid-denburg.

Kirk W. Noyes has recently received a draft of $2,000 from the Knights of Honor, on account of the death of his brother, Moore R., of which institution the deceased was a member.

Abram Winters, the lad who was arrested for stealing money from Frank Osborne, was sentenced by Esq. Mason to the Reform School at Lansing until he shall arrive at the age of 18 years.

Asa Glidden was surprised on the evening of his 47th birthday, by a visit from a lot of his friends who filled his house and brought him some nice presents. They very nearly caught Asa on his heels.

Elder Ebert preached a double sermon on Sunday morning last. One that was spoken and one that could be read between the lines.
Perhaps that was the reason he did not put in an appearance Sunday evening.

Williams returned from Aberdeen on Saturday last. He says Dakota is a great country and that he is going back soon. He reports Mr. Duncombe's health as good, and says the climate agrees with him first rate.

The Breedsville correspondent of the Bangor Reflector advertises, for the Fourth, both foot and horse races, on water and land.
Those "foot and horse races" on the water will be a great novelty and ought to draw a big crowd.

At the recent temperance meeting here, which was addressed by J. C. Bontecou, a "temperance alliance" was organized with the following officers: President, J. W. Free; Vice President, D. Woodman; Secretary, A.
W. Hendricks; Treasurer, C. Richards.

While John Bullard was at work laying tile from the race to the reservoir on Main street, the dirt which had been thrown out of the ditch caved in upon him, breaking his collar bone and otherwise severely injuring him. One of the other workmen was slightly hurt.

A hilarious crowd returned from Lake Park along in the "wee sma' hours," last Friday night. They had been attending the dance there which was given by the Van Buren County Light Guard Band. The band played good music on our streets Friday p. m.

There are a great many hotels, but it is not every landlord who knows how to keep one, however. Johnny Sebring, of Bangor, does. He is fully alive to his business, and if anyone doubts it, just let him try the Sebring House the first time he has an opportunity.

Some three years since a team ran away in our streets and tried to climb one of Rowland's maple trees which stood in front of his residence, peeling it badly, since which time it has been gradually decaying. On Saturday last the wind blew a gale, and the tree was blown over falling across his iron gate and converting it into something like an ox-bow.

Miss Belle Bitley has been promoted to the grammar school. If she conducts that department as successfully as she filled a lower position, she will give good satisfaction.
The vacancy was offered to Mrs. Cora Martin but she did not care to accept the position.

Mrs. Heckert did not desire to stay in the school longer. She has been a most excellent teacher and her services will be missed.

Some time ago Emma Slack, made complaint against her husband, Roswell Slack, for assault and battery. The respondent was arraigned on Friday last and plead not guilty. The cause was adjourned one week.

The husband says Emma has been naughty and he wants her prosecuted for it. She has asked that the prosecution against Roswell may be dropped. Perhaps she fears the result of an investigation.

On Monday we visited Mr. T. D. Ward's well kept apiary at Lawton, consisting of sixty thriving colonies. The bees are of two varieties, Italian and Hybrids, and are already working sections enough to produce 1,000 lbs. of honey. He uses the Langstroth hive, which he places upon the ground, having first prepared a thick layer of saw-dust.
Mr. Ward is an enthusiastic bee-man, and makes this business a success.

The bodies of Capt. John King and Ed.
Callender, who were lost on the ill-fated schooner, Industry, were found on the beach near South Haven, on Monday last.

Union Temperance Service in the Free Baptist church on Sunday evening, will be addressed by Rev. G. L. Cole.

Emma Slack and Joshua Crofoot were arraigned before Esq. Galligan, on Tuesday last, charged, on complaint of Emma's husband, with the crime of adultery. Their examination was set for Monday next.

The school board have accepted the application of Prof. J. W. Cupples, of Galesburg, for the principalship of our school.
The vacancy caused by the promotion of Miss Bitley, will probably be filled by Miss May Myers.

The boy Winters who escaped from custody the other day, was arrested in Breedsville on Tuesday night for stealing a watch, jackknife and twenty-five cents, out of the Breedsville mill. He was brought to Paw Paw, Wednesday morning, and will not, probably, be allowed to escape again.

An adjourned term of the circuit court was held on Monday last. Frank Stoughton was arraigned on a charge of burglary, and plead guilty. The court sentenced him to eighteen months imprisonment at Ionia. He was one of the boys who burglarized the store of Daniel Congdon at Glendale, on the 20th day of May last.

In the case of criminals, it don't answer to enlarge the jail limits so that they embrace much more than the needed cell-room.
The boy Winters who was sentenced to the Reform School the other day by Justice Mason, was sent to the well, just outside the jail on Monday last, to bring in some water and he forgot to return. He did not want to go to school and so played truant.

Many of our friends doubtless have at times, items of news which would be of interest to the readers of our paper. To any such we would say hand them in or jot them down on a postal and send them to us.
An editor is necessarily kept in his office a good share of the time, and can't know all that is going on. Don't be afraid because you may not be used to writing. Give us the facts and we will dress them in words if need be.

Our correspondents should bear in mind that we always go to press on Thursday at one o'clock. Our correspondence should reach us as early as Tuesday night or Wednesday noon at the farthest. Send your communications early, and then if something of more than ordinary interest transpires send another letter. We can sometimes find room at a late hour for a short local, when we should be compelled to entirely omit a series of common-place items for lack of space and want of time to put them in type.

They talk of starting another newspaper at Hartford. No doubt the man who undertakes it will get extremely wealthy. There are now but ten papers that we know of published in the county, and there are several unoccupied points that would no doubt prove to be bonanzas for some enterprising chap with plenty of money, who desires to go into the newspaper business. For instance Glendale, Grand Junction, White Oak, Kibbies, Porter Center and several other localities are at present open fields for journalistic enterprise.

A letter from C. H. Jacobs Esq., one of the old friends of the NORTHERNER, written at Valley Grange, Neb., speaking of the prospects of that country, says that Fairview, or McCook as it is now called, a station on the B. & M. R. R. near where Mr. J. is located, is having a regular boom. This road has recently been completed to Denver, Col., and McCook is about midway between Denver, Col. and Omaha, Neb. Where there was nothing but a dry goods store and post-office a few weeks ago, buildings are being rapidly erected and lots are selling as high as $1,000 and advancing all the time. We hope Mr.
Jacobs may share in the prosperous times they are having there.

The Narrow Gauge.
On Wednesday morning last ground was broken at Lawrence for the extension of the road to Hartford. The morning train took down the officers of the road, representatives of the press at Paw Paw, and others who desired to be present on the occasion. There was also present a delegation from Hartford.
Soon after the arrival of the train at Lawrence the party assembled together just west of the turn-table where, at the suggestion of L. S. Warren, Wm. Bennett of Hartford, who has been very active in behalf of the Hartford line, was allowed the honor of throwing the first shovelful of earth. Warren cast an old horse-shoe into the road-bed for luck, and in a very short space of time, one length of rail was graded, tied, and the iron laid thereon. It is the intention of the managers to push the work rapidly, and to complete the road as fast as graded, so that the construction train can keep closed up with the graders. The month of September will, no doubt, witness the entrance of the little engine into the village of Hartford.
